- 4.7. The relevant QTF High Performance Panel member will coordinate selection meetings with the Head Coaches in the order listed in clause 4.5. Players not selected in one division may then be selected in another division, subject to the player's eligibility and in accordance with High Performance program outcomes.
- 4.8. In rare circumstances, players may be selected into a lower age division if considered appropriate and in accordance with High Performance program outcomes. The final decision on this shall rest with the QTF State of Origin Manager.
- 4.9. Twenty-four (24) players shall be invited to attend the final team selection camp(s). Notice will be provided of selection camps. (Note - players shall be required to confirm their acceptance of the invitation to attend the final camp within 7 days of receiving notice).
- 4.10. At the conclusion, of the Selection Camp, Head Coaches with input from QTF High Performance Panel member shall submit a team list of fourteen

(14) players and the remaining ten (10) squad members will form the shadow group. The QTF State of Origin Manager shall then seek ratification from QTF Board.

- 4.11. All Queensland State of Origin teams shall be announced via the Qld Touch Football website when all teams are finalized and until that time, strict confidentiality applies to all involved in the process.
- 4.12. Upon announcement of the teams all selected players shall, within the communicated timeframe, be required to confirm their availability to serve as final confirmation of selection, including payment of deposit at the time of acceptance and payment of the remaining levy by due date.
- 4.13. A panel consisting of the QTF State of Origin Manager, a QTF High Performance Panel, and other nominee as determined by QTF, shall be established to facilitate and manage all selection disputes and or dispensation requests.

5. REPLACEMENT OF PLAYERS

- 5.1 Should a player withdraw from a SOO team or squad; the replacement method shall follow the process below.
 - 5.1.1 The Head Coach contacts the QTF State of Origin Manager and notifies them of the withdrawal including relevant reasons. (Note – Players may be asked to provide documentary evidence of the reason of withdrawal).
 - 5.1.2 The Head Coach selects a replacement player from the shadow list (Note - All replacements must come from the shadow list first and foremost; and additional players may be considered only after this list is exhausted.)
